From the pastor:

Comments on Tithing from the pews:

My Good Deed for the Week: Here's what several of our young people offered as their tithing, in addition to their financial gift: A 3rd grader said, "I helped my mother hang the laundry outside." A 5th grader said, "I watched my little cousin, while my aunt made cookies." A 1st grader said, "I picked flowers for my neighbor."

SPONSORS FOR BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION

Everyone rejoices when a child is baptized or confirmed. Preparations can rival that of a wedding. Relatives are invited, party plans are made, clothes selected ... and godparents are chosen.

What a disappointment when parents are informed by the parish priest that Uncle Charlie or Aunt Susie is not suitable as godparent. Why in the world not?! Uncle Charlie is great with Christmas gifts for the kids every year. Aunt Susie holds the family reunion every year at her place. People can literally lose their religion over this one.

Let's look at the requirements for sponsors, as they are called, in official Church law, or canon law. Canon 874 says that a sponsor for baptism must be a confirmed Catholic, at least 16 years old, confirmed, not the candidate's mother or father, who "leads a life in harmony with the faith and the role to be undertaken." The law says the same for confirmation sponsors.

That last part in quotes packs a wallop. The sponsor, in other words, is to be a practicing Catholic, which means 1) going to Mass every weekend, 2) if married, married in the Catholic Church, 3) living a moral life.

One who is baptized in a non-Catholic denomination may stand with the Catholic baptismal sponsor and is called a Christian witness. But non-practicing Catholics are not eligible as sponsors or as Christian witnesses.

It makes sense. The sponsor is to be a living witness or example for the baptized or confirmed child to what a vibrant, full, Christian, Catholic life is all about. At a baptism, the sponsors actually stand up and publicly pledge that kind of life. But if they aren't really living it, (not going to Mass, invalid marriage, immorality) the pledge becomes a lie, rendering it meaningless.

It's not just about friendships, family ties, and gifts at Christmas and birthdays. The sponsors are also to be models of the spiritual life. Choose them carefully. And this might be an opportunity to invite Uncle Charlie or Aunt Susie to apply for that annulment, renew their spiritual life, or to get back to Mass every Sunday. If they talk to a priest, get to confession and straighten out certain things in their lives... well, maybe something can be worked out.
